

You, San Diego, the Holiday Bowl, Parade & Halftime Show... sound good?

The Simi Valley High School Marching Band & Color Guard has received an invitation to perform at the nationally televised December 2008 Holiday Bowl parade & halftime show in San Diego.

This year's band swept first place in their division at each competition with their Tribute to Stevie Wonder show and next year will be even more exciting when they take the field at the Holiday Bowl. You can be part of the fun and excitement.

The four day trip will include the Holiday Bowl parade and halftime show, a band competition to perform at the pre-game show, several sightseeing opportunities in San Diego and a day at Sea World with dinner and awards for the participants.

Marching Band & Color Guard is a 7th period class which carries a full grade and PE credits. The band plays at each home football game, as well as various venues in the area and the SCSBOA Field Tournament competitions in the fall. Get more information about the Simi Valley High School music program from your school counselors and at: svhsmusicboosters.org.